

The Poetry of Truth Quotes Erasure Text

a lie can travel half way around the world while the truth is putting on its shoes in a time of deceit telling the truth is a revolutionary act man is least himself when he talks in his own person give him a mask, and he will tell you the truth men occasionally stumble over the truth, but most of them pick themselves up and hurry off as if nothing had happened never be afraid to raise your voice for honesty and truth and compassion against injustice and lying and greed if people all over the world...would do this, it would change the earth the truth does not change according to our ability to stomach it art is the lie that enables us to realize the truth rather than love, than money, than fame, give me truth if you want to tell people the truth, make them laugh, otherwise they'll kill you if you do not tell the truth about yourself you cannot tell it about other people a truth that's told with bad intent beats all the lies you can invent better a cruel truth than a comfortable delusion the only truth is music the truth isn't always beauty, but the hunger for it is the truth is not always beautiful, nor beautiful words the truth there are two ways to be fooled one is to believe what isn't true; the other is to refuse to believe what is true whatever satisfies the soul is truth perhaps the truth depends on a walk around the lake there's a world of difference between truth and facts facts can obscure truth truth never damages a cause that is just love truth, but pardon error three things can not hide for long: the Moon, the Sun and the truth being in a minority, even in a minority of one, did not make you mad there was truth and there was untruth, and if you clung to the truth even against the whole world, you were not mad there's more beauty in truth, even if it is dreadful beauty when truth is replaced by silence, the silence is a lie